CASE STUDIES

CUSTOMER

PERFUME EXPORTER

CHALLENGE

The company was exporting perfume products to the EAEU and ended their relationship with a distribution partner. In turn, the distribution partner would not allow another distributor to use goods certificates that had been issued for the exporter.

SOLUTION

SCHNEIDER GROUP acted as an Authorized Representative and urgently issued all necessary permits for the client company, ensuring that there was no break in supplies to the EAEU.

Now, the perfume exporter can develop their business in the EAEU and conclude transactions with any company.

SCHNEIDER GROUP bears any risks that arise if a user of the exported perfumes raises a claim.

CUSTOMER

PHARMACEUTICAL COMPANY

CHALLENGE

Specific regulations for pharma products and companies involved. The supplier cannot participate in direct shipment of pharmaceuticals to its distributor in Russia.

SOLUTION

SCHNEIDER GROUP focused on 2 CIS countries and carried out a detailed analysis of local regulations (licensing, permission documents), labelling requirements and customs procedures. As a result, an appropriate model of shipping to Uzbekistan with the following export to a distributor in Russia was proposed.

An effective use of existing customs procedures in Uzbekistan allowed to optimize costs for each shipment.

Leveraging our presence in markets across the region, we constantly kept track on any changes in local legislation and internal regulations for banks as the terms for shipment fulfillment changed during this project twice.
